

Due to safety regulations and insurance guidelines the following items cannot be packed or shipped by Allied Van Lines.

- Flammable Substances such as lamp oil, gasoline, motor oil, any other fuels or oils, kerosene, aerosol cans, lighter fluid, fireworks, starter logs, nail polish remover, turpentine, matches, alcohol, chemicals, etc.
- Propane gas tanks and pressurized tanks such as fire extinguishers, oxygen tanks.
- Jewelry, currency, coin or stamp collections, piggy banks, prescription drugs etc.
- Frozen foods or any perishable food items.
- Carbonated items like soda, champagne, beer, etc.
- Caustic liquids such as cleaning supplies, bleach, drain cleaner, etc.
- Paints and varnishes, both oil-based and latex
- Ammunition of any kind

Please be aware it is your responsibility to do the following inspections before the crew leaves your home on loading day.

- Inspect cupboards, closets and drawers to make sure all items have been placed on the truck.
- Inspect the walls, doors, and floors inside of your home and the exterior for damage, home damage must be reported within 24 hours of the crew being in your home.

This form will need to be signed and given to your crew at time of packing or loading acknowledging that your shipment does not have any of the above items in it and you are aware of the inspection process.

Signature: _____ Date: _____